2012

The Houston Jewish Community Foundation's Professional Advisors Seminar, now in its ninth year, offers professional advisors cutting-edge information on charitable giving and financial planning.

Join us April 19, 2012, 7:30 a.m. at the Westin Hotel to hear Christopher E. Erblich. Mr. Erblich, who has clients in more than 20 states, is frequently sought out by other professionals and organizations to help develop creative planning solutions for complex situations.

Corporate sponsorships for the seminar are available on a limited basis.

Do a colleague a favor, share this info and invite them along!
